Meet the author, Leslie Scott

Tuesday 6 Dec | 5.30pm, 6pm start | Heritage Reading Room

When local Clunes resident Leslie Scott discovers two brumbies living on the rugged Mount Beckworth, she almost can't believe it. Brumbies don't live in Central Victoria, and the terrain is not suited to them, so how did they get there?

Come along and meet Leslie and hear her talk about this heartwarming story, Once Were Wild is a fascinating and heart-warming story about a woman and her resourcefulness and determination to do what's right for two beautiful brumbies.
